courses for self-improvement in both professional and social re-lationships.

Among the visiting faculty for the session are Dr. Lillian Proietto, head of the Biology Department at Marymount College in Tarrytown, N Y., and Rev. Burke Anselm, O. Carm., chairman of the Philosophy Department at the same insti-

COURSES TO be offered include drawing and painting, general biology, theory of busi-ness, history of Europe, econ-omics, history of the United States, Shakespeare, modern history, readings in literature and ethics.

Also listed are classes in sowork, theology for the laity, reading in the elementary school, elementary curritary school, elementary carri-culum, science in the elemen-tary school, education of ex-ceptional children, guidance and counseling, and evaluation and measurement.

A SPECIAL workshop, especially designed for public and private school instructors, will cover the teaching of elementary school arithmetic, taking place on July 21st to Aug.
4th, for which three units of credit will be given.

Republican Club To Hear County GOP Chairman

Members of the Republican Club will meet Tuesday evening at 8 in the Higgins Brick and Tile Co. patio at 2217 W. Artesia Blvd., it was announced yesterday by President Tom Brewer.

Julius "Jud" Leetham, chairon of the Los Angeles County publican Central Committee, ill be the featured speaker.

Leetham was elected chair-man of the County GOP group last January, climaxing years of work on behalf of Republicans, Brewer said.

He is a graduate of Stan-ford and the Harvard Law School, and a practicing attorney in Los Angeles.

Refreshments will be served at the end of Tuesday's meet-

Blount said last week that if turned out Peebles was the est man available, he would vote for him.

IN A SEPARATE matter, the husband of a local school teacher alleged to councilmen that Planning Commission President Bert M. Lynn had eceived "special considera-ion" in a building project—an ssertion which Lynn denied Wednesday

Bert Smith, who resides at 23724 Pennsylvania Avenue, claimed Lynn had not been assed $1309 for sewer-conne n fees in the fall of 1959.

EYNN SAID yesterday that he sewers were installed to he property when he purchasd it for development, and that grading permit had been ob-nined two months before the effective date of a new ordin-ance setting up such fees. City Manager George Stevens was instructed to make a thorough investigation of the matter and report to next week's council meeting.
